ES (English Studies) is a yearly international peer-reviewed scholarly journal of the Department of Filología Inglesa (University of Valladolid, Spain). It is devoted to encouraging reflection and research in the fields of Language and Linguistics, Language Learning and Teaching, Literary Studies and Cultural Studies. It is addressed to a specialised audience in the above mentioned fields.

The Department of English Philology, University of Valladolid, is preparing the launching of the next volume (nº 28) year 2007 of its academic journal ES.

Our next number will welcome any contribution on the following subject: “Center and Periphery: Mutual Enrichment”. This topic can be dealt with within the following fields of research: Historical and Cultural Relations; Literary Connections; Linguistic approaches; Teaching and Translation as a Means of communication between Central and Peripheral communities.

In this number of ES (English Studies) we propose an approach to the study of the kaleidoscopic variety of communication between the center and the periphery in the English speaking world and the benefits derived from those heterogeneous exchanges.

Books reviews are also welcome.

Deadline for submissions: 30th April 2007.

Communication of acceptance: June 2007.
