

Informe de la dirección de Atlantis

Report from the General Editor of Atlantis

PROF. EMÉRITA ANGELA DOWNING, UNIVERSIDAD COMPLUTENSE DE MADRID

Throughout this year the Editorial Committee of Atlantis has worked untiringly to bring out a range of quality articles and reviews which I trust you have enjoyed reading. We have also continued to fulfil the formal criteria established by the CINDOC and by ERIH (European Reference Index for the Humanities). Nevertheless, it appears that Atlantis has still some way to go before attaining recognition on the ERIH lists. I feel that this is a question of time and that it will be achieved.

For the purpose of refining the lists for a further adjustment this year, collaboration is invited by the ERIH team from publishers, editors, researchers and scholars to fill in and send a form online as soon as possible. You will see that Lords and Ladies, Dames and Sirs, Mr., Mrs, and Misses, Drs and Professors are also invited to take part in this scholarly exercise of support of the journal they publish, edit, read or subscribe to.

For this reason I respectfully invite the members of AEDEAN, whether they contribute to Atlantis or not, to fill in a form individually as a dr., professor, researcher, contributor or simply a reader. The initial lists are to be found at : <http://www.esf.org/research-areas/humanities/research-infrastructures-including-erih/erih-initial-lists.html> Click on Ctrl.+ this url to enter ERIH, and then on Feedback form in the panel on the right. You may wish to download the form before filling it in online. In the same panel there is also the option Frequently Asked Questions, such as: 'The journal I subscribe to is not on the list. What can I do?' Clicking on a question will also give access to a form.

Thank you for your patience and time. We shall greatly appreciate your effective action in support of Atlantis.
