

Gower in Context(s). Scribal, Linguistic, Literary and Socio-historical Readings

Edited by

Laura Filardo-Llamas, Brian Gastle and Marta Gutiérrez Rodríguez

Special issue of ES. Revista de Filología Inglesa 33.1

Valladolid: Publicaciones Universidad de Valladolid, 2012.

ISSN: 0210-9689. ISBN: 978-84-8448-725-3

How to buy it:

→ through the website of the University of Valladolid Press:
<http://www.publicaciones.uva.es/UVAPublicaciones-12901-Humanidades-Revistas-ES-331-2012-REVISTA-DE-FILOLOGIA-INGLESA.aspx>

→ Price: 14,43 €

For further information, contact the editors:

lfilardo@fyl.uva.es, bgastle@email.wcu.edu,
mmgr@fyl.uva.es

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Introduction

I. Manuscript Context

Ruen-chuan Ma

Vernacular Accessus: Text and Gloss in Gower's Confessio Amantis and Christine de Pizan's Épître Othéa

Tamara Pérez-Fernández

The Margins in the Iberian Manuscripts of John Gower's Confessio Amantis: Language, Authority and Readership

Rosemarie McGerr

Gower's Confessio and the Nova statuta Angliae: Royal Lessons in English Law

II. Socio-historical Context

Jerome Mandel

Conflict Resolution in the "Wife of Bath's Tale" and in Gower's "Tale of Florent"

Misty Schieberle

Controlling the Uncontrollable: Love and Fortune in Book I of the Confessio Amantis

Katie Peebles

Arguing from Foreign Grounds: John Gower's Leveraging of Spain in English Politics

III. Literary and Linguistic Context

Linda Barney Burke

"The Voice of One Crying": John Gower, Christine de Pizan, and the Tradition of Elijah the Prophet

Annika Farber

Genius and the Practice of Ethical Reading

Malte Urban

Cracks and Fissures: Gower's Poetics on the Edge

Emily Houlik-Ritchey

Rewriting Difference: "Saracens" in John Gower and Juan de Cuenca