SPANISH JOURNAL OF ENGLISH STUDIES

Call for Papers

The Editorial Board of ES Review. Spanish Journal of English Studies is pleased to announce its Call for Submissions for Issue 43 (2022).

ES Review. Spanish Journal of English Studies, a refereed international journal published yearly by the Department of Filología Inglesa at the University of Valladolid, cordially invites submission of original manuscripts in the form of articles and book reviews dealing with all major areas of English Studies.

The journal seeks an emphasis on the linguistic, literary, and cultural connections between Spain or Hispanic-America and the English-speaking world and is particularly interested in articles and book reviews in that area. Nevertheless, as always, it welcomes all contributions that are qualitative and critical within the broader fields of English Language and Linguistics, Literature and Criticism, History and Culture, Translation Studies, Philology and Textual Studies. Please, note that ELT and Didactics fall outside of our journal scope.

Interested authors are asked to submit their articles or reviews electronically, using the journal's institutional repository at revistas.uva.es/index.php/esreview/index, where they will find author instructions and will be guided stepwise through the submission process.

Send your proposals by 30 November 2021. The expected date of publication is Autumn 2022.

ES Review is freely available online at its open-access website and may be accessed in full text also at DOAJ, LION, MLA International Bibliography, REDIB, Dialnet and UVADoc. The journal is indexed by SCOPUS, ERIHPlus, Latindex-Catálogo v2.0, and MIAR, and disseminated by Crossref, ÍnDICES-CSIC, JournalTOCs, and Scilit, among other indexing and abstracting services.

We look forward to your contributions.

Sincerely,

María Eugenia Perojo Arronte
