IDENTITIES ON THE MOVE

CONTEMPORARY REPRESENTATIONS OF NEW SEXUALITIES AND GENDER IDENTITIES

Edited by: Silvia Pilar Castro-Borrego and Maria Isabel Romero-Ruiz

“Identities on the Move is a substantial and stimulating contribution to the ongoing debate on the construction of sexual and gender identities and their intricate relationship with body politics, gender performativity, gender relations, and queer/transgender agendas—all while intersecting with uneven power relations, (post)colonial (dis)encounters, and even (post)human conceptualizations. A welcome addition to the field!” — Mar Gallego, University of Huelva

“This collection of essays will make you uncomfortable, challenging everything you thought you knew about gender theory, migration theory, queer theory, postcolonialism, geopolitics, and sex trafficking. Acknowledging yet questioning the foundations for theoretical approaches set out in the twentieth century, the sixteen essays included here stretch our consciousness and provoke new questions, new formulations, and explode our academic ‘givens.’ A must-read” — Justine Tally, University of La Laguna

About the Book

Identities on the Move questions the postmodernist concept of identity by looking into more progressive views of identity and difference, addressing post-positivist interpretations of key identity markers such as sex, gender, race, and agency.
