Contemporary Capitalism, Crisis, and the Politics of Fiction

Literature Beyond Fordism

Roberto del Valle Alcalá

Series: Routledge Studies in Contemporary Literature

Contemporary Capitalism, Crisis, and the Politics of Fiction: Literature Beyond Fordism proposes a fresh approach to contemporary fictional engagements with the idea of crisis in capitalism and its various social and economic manifestations. The book investigates how late-twentieth and twenty-first-century Anglophone fiction has imagined, interpreted, and in most cases resisted, the collapse of the socio-economic structures built after the Second World War and their replacement with a presumably immaterial order of finance-led economic development.
